This is a great costume for little ones (from 6 months to 2+). All you need is a red sweat-suit (preferably one piece), a red knit cap, 1 large orange pom-pom, a set of large plastic doll eyes (the ones with the black pupil that jiggles around), a pair of Elmo slippers, and fabric glue. Simply attach the eyes and the pom-pom with fabric glue to make Elmo's face.

You can also add a mouth by using black felt, but I chose to no to because when I put the hat on my son I had to roll it up and it left no room for a mouth. Slip on the sweat-suit, the hat, and slippers and you are done!
